Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 6, 10, and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fuke et al.

Fuke et al discloses the use of a speaker comprising a voice coil bobbin (11), a voice coil(12) wound around the voice coil bobbin, a diaphragm (10) supported by the voice coil bobbin; and a metallic plate (21) attached to a heat radiating side of the diaphragm for radiating heat generated in the voice coil, voice coil bobbin and diaphragm.

Regarding claim 10, the diaphragm is dome shaped (see figure 3).

Regarding claim 11, the metallic plate(21) does not cover all the heat radiating side of the diaphragm (see figure 2).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 2837

4. Claims 7-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fuke in view of Inoue.

Fuke does not disclose the use of a diaphragm molded by injection molding, metallic elements or a recess portion to receive the metallic plate.

Inoue discloses the use of a speaker diaphragm main body from a resin made by injection molding (claim 7); and a metallic plate(16-19) where the metal plate has a plurality of elongated metal elements(claim 8) that radially extend from the bobbin(11). The diaphragm as disclosed by Inoue also discloses the use of a recess portion(claim 9) to receive the metal plate (see figure 2) and has a dome (6) and conical shape.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify to diaphragm as disclosed by Fuke with the injection molding, recess portion and metallic elements as disclosed by Inoue in order to reproduce clear sounds with good characteristics.

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
